2 : The passages:

First passage : imposed posing (morning) :

Athletes of the same category present themselves in their competition outfit.

Under the orders of the chairman, after presentation at the back of the stage, and having advanced on the comparison line, the athletes perform:

- ➔ A quarter turn to the left so as to appear in profile, then again a quarter turn to the left so as to stand with the judges, then a quarter turn to the left to present their other profile, and finally the athletes finish with a last quarter turn to the left in order to face the judges again.

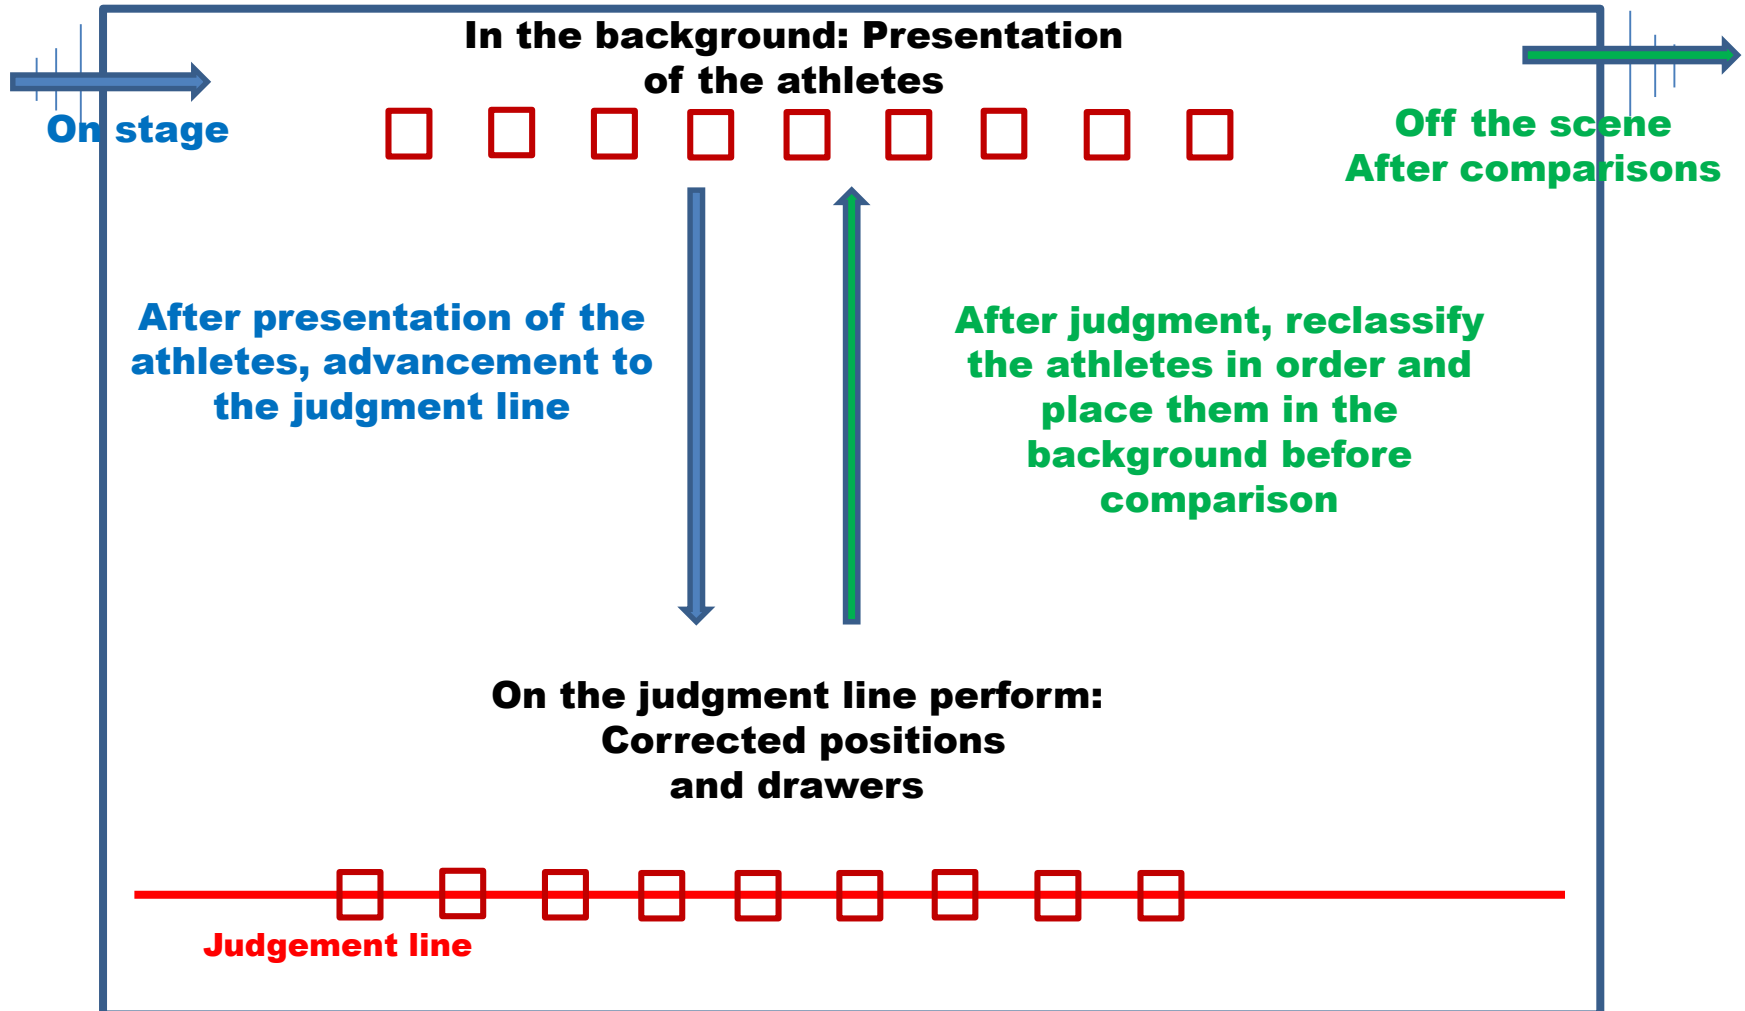

Depending on the number of athletes a drawer can be made. All athletes perform new corrected poses. After being put in the order of the bibs, the athletes are aligned in the background.

At the end of this individual passage, comparisons by 3 can then be requested by the judges in order to better estimate the athletes' physique and refine the ranking. Requests for comparisons will be made by the head of the table.

2 : The passages:

First passing for imposed posing:

2 : The passages:

Second passage (afternoon):

Athletes of the same category come on stage with the same outfit as in the morning.

Under the orders of the chairman, after presentation in the background, the athletes individually make a passage in " T " lasting 45 seconds in front of the judges before returning to their original position at the back of the stage.

Important Note:

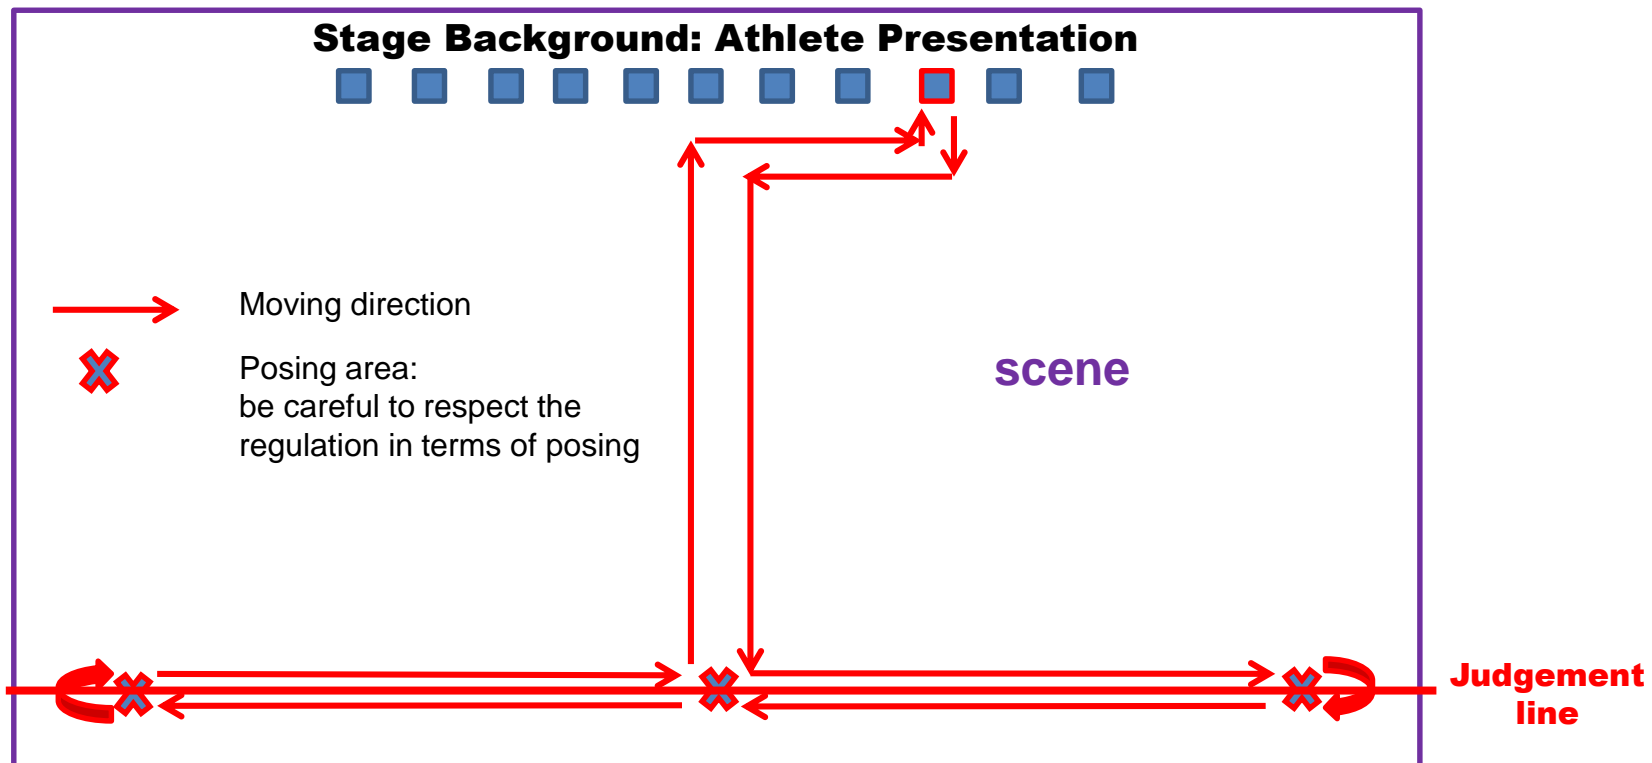

- the music is randomly chosen by the organization and will be the same for all athletes.
- The music lasts 45 " and will automatically cut off after regulation time.
- The athlete will regain its original place in the background as soon as possible at the end of the music. Any lacking will be sanctioned and could lead to disqualification.
